

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 87

TIME
6 April 1987

Milestones

RECOVERING. Victor Louis, 58, Soviet journalist, alleged KGB officer and conduit of selective information to the Western press; after a liver transplant; in London. Louis, among other scoops, leaked to the West the news of Nikita Khrushchev's sacking (1964) and Svetlana Stalin's return to the Soviet Union (1984); he also sold videotapes of Soviet Dissident Andrei Sakharov while the physicist was internally exiled in the city of Gorky (1984-86).

J